

Pam Wells, Ed.D. proudly serves as the executive director for Region 4 Education Service Center, which is the largest of the twenty education service centers in Texas. Region 4 provides service to support more than 1.2 million students and approximately 99,000 professional educators in 48 school districts and 39 public charter schools in the seven-county greater Houston area.

Dr. Wells has been an educator for 44 years. She began her career as a teacher in Spring Branch ISD. She then served as a teacher, director of instruction, a secondary social studies curriculum coordinator, assistant to the superintendent, associate superintendent and interim superintendent in Cypress-Fairbanks ISD.

Pam has served as an adjunct professor at Sam Houston State University (SHSU) where she received her M.Ed. and Ed.D. and in 2015 was honored as the SHSU College of Education Distinguished Administrator. During the CFISD 75th Anniversary Jubilee, Pam was recognized as one of 75 honorees. In 2016 she was selected as an Outstanding Woman in Education by the North Harris County Branch of the AAUW. In 2017, she and her husband, Jim, were honored to become the namesakes of a new elementary school in Cy-Fair ISD, Wells Elementary.

Dr. Wells serves as the 2020–2022 Vice President at Large for the Urban Superintendents Association of America, on the Houston Education Regional Consortium (HERC) Advisory Board, on the American Heart Association Board of Directors, the HB 906 Mental Health Task Force, the Greater Houston Partnership's Education Advisory Council, Upskill Houston Executive Committee, the Good Reason HB 3 Superintendent Advisory Council, the Good Reason Teacher Shortage Advisory Council, the Good Reason/Early Matters Leadership Council and the United Way Education Council; is on the Dean's Advisory Council for the University of Houston Department of Education; is a member of the School of Education Board of Visitors for St. Thomas University; is on Houston Baptist University's Teacher Education Advisory Council; volunteers at Reach Unlimited; serves on the Cy-Hope Board of Directors; and is a Cy-Fair Educational Foundation trustee.